

Red Hill Special School – Action Plan from Discipline Audit September 2014

Further to the Discipline Audit of September 1st 2014 and in accord with Recommendations Red Hill Special School will:

- Provide training in Non Violent Crisis Intervention for staff during the 2014 Pupil Free Days in January 2014
- Through the Red Hill Special School's Positive Behaviour Committee, further refine the Red Hill Special School Responsible Behaviour Plan for Students (RBPS) to reflect our agreed positive behaviour protocols for the cohort of students at our school
- Develop digital resources to support the explicit teaching of Red Hill Special School's behaviour expectations
- Continue to utilise the functions of OneSchool to monitor, review and inform school responsiveness to the school's RBPS.
